

Charles Leonard Starbuck

March 20 1922 – December 25, 2002

(From Hinton News - January 7, 2003)

C. L. STARBUCK

C. L. "Rags" Starbuck, 80, of Clendenin died Dec. 25, 2002 at home after a short illness.

He was born in Summers County and was a member of Ascension Episcopal Church Hinton. Mr. Starbuck was a Navy veteran of World War II, serving as a Seabee.

He was preceded in death his wife, Betty Keffer Starbuck; and a son, Mit, of Myrtle Beach, S.C.

He is survived by a son, Tom of Myrtle Beach; a daughter, Jo Ann Pack of Clendenin; four grandchildren and one great grandchild.

There will be a private family service. The body was donated to science.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to Ascension Episcopal Church, 222 5th. Ave., Hinton, WV 25951.