

Helena Frances Stewart Williams

July 14, 1911 – February 14, 1992

(From Hinton News - March 10, 1992)

HELENA F. WILLIAMS

Helena F. Williams, 80, a retired account clerk in Fairfax County's finance office, died of respiratory failure Feb. 14, 1992, at Loudoun Hospital Center in Leesburg, Va.

Mrs. Williams lived in Fairfax City until last July, when she moved to the Heritage Hall nursing home in Leesburg. She was born in Hinton, W.Va. She moved to the Washington area in 1946.

In the early 1950's, she went to work in the treasurer's office of what is now Fairfax County finance office, and she retired in 1981.

Mrs. Williams was a member of Truro Episcopal Church in Fairfax and the Audubon Naturalist Society.

Her marriage to Stuart Williams ended in divorce.

Survivors include a daughter, Carolyn D. Williams of Fairfax; three sisters, Daisy May Whanger of Columbus, Oh., Margaret Pollack of Belpre, Oh., and Eliza Jane McCulty of Gallipolis, Oh.; and two brothers, James Stewart of Logan, Oh., and John Stewart of Columbus, Oh.