(From Pivont Funeral Home June 2010)

Lois Ann Hartwell Cook to her final flight to the shining city of timeless day at 5:30 a.m. Monday May 31, 2010 at her home on Zion Mountain. Her family, husband, children and grandchildren were gathered there to bid her farewell. She was so happy to be making this trip, leaving her home and affairs of life in good order, and peace at the dawning of a new day.

Lois Ann was born December 16, 1941 on Zion Mountain to the late Silas Kenton and Irene Hodge Hartwell. Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by brothers, Jim, David and Tom and sister, Barbara.

Remaining here are her childhood family, brothers, Bud, Bill, Roger, Ralph, Dan and Gary Hartwell and sisters, Hilda Creasey, Ruth Angell, Betty Lamb and her mother-in-law, Blanche Cook.

Lois was born into this world to be a blessing to those she met. She made a lovely home for Dickie and the children. She was a faithful servant of her Lord and wonderful friend and neighbor. As a member of Nimitz Missionary Baptist Church, she could be counted on for Sunday School, worship, choir practice and evening service. Tuesday found her cooking or assembling John & Romans ministry books at church. On Wednesday, she and Dickie were in their seats for prayer meetings. Truly, she was a light to all who were privileged to be in her company.

"Strength and Honor are her clothing, and she shall rejoice in time to come" Prov. 31:28.
