

James Hedrick Light

September 20, 1922 – February 11, 1973

(From - Beckley Post Herald - February 13, 1973)

Rites Wednesday For James Light

HINTON (RNS) — James (Heggie) Light, 51, of South Charleston, formerly of Hinton, died Sunday in a Charleston hospital after a short illness.

Born in Hinton, Sept. 20, 1922, he was a son of the late E. J. and Ada Light.

He was a World War II veteran, a member of the South Charleston Christian Church, the Hinton Masonic Lodge and was employed by Union Carbide Co. in South Charleston.

Survivors include his wife, Mildred Light; a son, Larry, at home, and two sisters, Miss Willie Light and Mrs. Paul Scott, both of Talcott.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Central Baptist Church at Hinton with Rev. W. R. McCoy in charge. Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery at Ballengee.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 6 p.m. today.