

Lawrence Burdette

November 6, 1916 – February 15, 2006

(From Findagrave.com)

Lawrence W. "Chisel" Burdette, 89, of Charleston and Meadow Creek, took Jesus' hand and entered into his heavenly home on Wednesday, Feb. 15, 2006.

Born Nov. 6, 1916, in Hinton, he was the son of the late Wash and Bertie Cales Burdette. He joins his parents and eight of his nine siblings in heaven.

"Chisel" retired from Union Carbide as a supervisor. He was a member of Emmanuel Baptist Church where he had served on the Board of Trustees. He was a former member of North Hills Baptist Church, a church extension project that he had helped construct. He was also in the Seabees in World War II.

He loved his home at Meadow Creek along the New River, where he enjoyed many fun and peaceful times with family and friends.

"Chisel" is survived by his wife of 66 years, Margaret of Charleston; children and their spouses, Barbara and John Welch of Charleston, L.W. Burdette Jr. of Talcott and James and Mary Kay Burdette of Charleston; grandchildren and their spouses, Jay and Annette Welch of Gainesville, Fla., Mike and Rose Welch of Sissonville, Jennie and Howard Curry of Sissonville, Krissy, Mark, Lee and Laura Burdette, all of Fairmont, Anna and Chad Rogers of Catlettsburg, Ky., and Rusty Burdette of Washington, D.C.; sister, Mary Ann Butler of Charleston; special brother-in-law and friend, Raymond Perry of Hinton; 10 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.